Estimated between Fri. Twain's humor was not always appreciated, such as his hoax on October 28, called "A Bloody Massacre near Carson" alternatively, the " Empire City Massacre Hoax"purporting to detail the story of a man who loses "an immense amount in the Spring Valley Water Company of San Francisco" who in a deranged fit kills and scalps his wife and nine children. Ask any old timer who was logging that winter, and they'll tell you I ain't lying when I say his kitchen covered about ten miles of territory. This kind of behavior distressed and exasperated them, whereas I think they secretly enjoyed watching us go hungry. At last, we will share a case with you in order to give you a visual impression of our M. He could barely see his own hand in front of his face.
